

Summer Courses 2022

Combine academics with authentic experiences, taking advantage of the sun, the sea and the vibrant summer culture of Greece & its islands.

Two, 4-week sessions

May 23 - July 16, 2022

- The Strangeness of Ancient Greece: Diversity, Difference and Regionality among the Greek States (Athens, Peloponnese, Thassos)
- Excavating in the Aegean: The Despotiko Field School (Paros, Antiparos)
- The Present Past: Re-imagining Greece Through Heritage (Athens, Crete, Rhodes)
- Plague, Politics, & Populism: Classical Athens as Parable for Modern Greece and Europe (Athens, Delphi, Delos, Mykonos)
- The Geography of Faith: Paul and the Emergence of Christianity in Greece (Athens, Corinth, Philippi, Thessaloniki)
- Greek Island Architecture, Culture, and Identity (Naxos, Amorgos, Santorini, Tinos)
- When Egypt meets the Aegean: Interconnections in the Bronze Age Eastern Mediterranean (Thera, Crete, Athens)
- Tasting Culture: Nordic and Mediterranean Food, Tradition, and Nutrition (Greece: Athens, island of Naxos. Denmark: Copenhagen, island of Samsø)
- Becoming a Traveler: Writing in Greece (Athens, Poros, Nauplion)

→ CYA strongly encourages early application. Applications are considered only as long as space is available.