

Winter Courses 2023

If you have a keen interest in archaeology or anthropology, you may gain experience and credit by participating in one of CYA's three-week winter intersession programs.

January 3 - 21, 2023

- Excavations at Aixonidai Halai
(Voula Field School)

→ This course, a combination of excavation experience and lectures, will teach students about the field of archaeology. This course is great for all students, but especially for archaeology majors who need field experience.

Winter Courses 2023

January 3 - 21, 2023

- Anthropology of the City:
Exploring Modern Athens

→ Engage with how the city intersects with gender & sexuality, inequality, migration, sustainability, consumption, capitalism, activism, homelessness, art, pleasure and more!

Winter courses are a great addition to a CYA Spring semester!
